CLOSING EXERCISES.—The closing exercises of the Belle Haven Institute-Misses E. B. Garber and A. S. Tebbs, principals-were held last night in the presence of a large and appreciative audience of the friends of the school. The exercises on this occasion were not so extended as formerly, and yet sufficiently so to demonstrate, to the fullest extent, the proficiency of the scholars in the various departments of education, and at the same time affording another illustration of the accustomed good taste of the principals of this most excellent Institution. The evening's entertainment opened with a lively French play entitled "La Lotterie de Francfort ou L'occasion fait le Larron," in which the several young ladies who took part, acquitted themselves very creditably, evincing a thorough acquaintance with this language, which now forms so essential a part of a lady's education. The prizes, medals and diplomas were then distributed by K. Kemper, esq., as follows:

Prizes in the Primary Class-For Improvement and Deportment, to Virginia Corse; Diligence, Improvement and Deportment, to Julia Fleming; Improvement and Deportment, to Bertha Eichberg; Improvement and Deportment, to Edith Rotchford.

Prize in the Junior Class-For Scholarship and Deportment, to Mary Smoot. Prize in the Intermediate Class-For Improvement and Deportment, to Minnie Smoot.

Prize for Scripture Recitation, to Annie Summers. Silver Medals-For Diligence and Deportment, to Alura Miner; Improvement and Deportment, to Annie Summers; Improvement and Deportment, to Alice De Vaughn; Scholarship and Deportment, to Mary Greenaway; Scholarship and Deportment, to Effic De-Vaughn. Gold Badges-For Scholarship and Deportment, to Connie Boush and Mary Tebbs. Gold Writing Medal, awarded by Prof. Spencer, to Annie Patterson.

Silver medal in 2d French Class, awarded by Prof. Caumont, to Blanch Nicklin. Gold Medal in 1st French Class, to Lucy

Gold Harps to Claudia Norton and Bessie Masters. Gold Medal, for Scholarship and Deportment, to Henrietta Gibson. Gold Stars, for Scholarship and Deportment, to Misses Margie Henderson, Anna Stringfellow and Kate Green.

Diplomas-To Miss Claudia Norton, for French, Music and Select English Course; Miss Kate Boush, English Course; Miss Ada Grigg, French and English Course; Miss Margie Henderson, Select English Course; Miss Anna Stringfellow, English and French.

Full Diploma for French, German, Music and English, to Miss Kate M. Green-the second full diploma awarded in the Institute. Private Music Class-Gold Harp to Miss Bessie Falls, by Prof. Heyman.

It will be seen from the above list of prizes that the Belle Haven Institute is in a very flourishing condition, and notwithstanding a rumor to the contrary, we are pleased to learn that Miss Garber will continue the school after

ALEXANDRIA-ITS RAILROADS.-While extensive iron works, manufactories, and ma | derly affair and several disturbances occurred, several facilities to capitalists who will put up of the police. extensive mills, factories, iron works, and large establishments.

The railroads also, W. C. V. M. and Great Southern Line, and the W. & O. line, both offer large facilities in favorable freights, on iron, coal, timber, and other heavy articles, to those who will here engage in extensive manufactures. The W. C. V. M. & G. S. R. R., under management of Colonel Barbour, has fitted up a fine new office and made other improvements that afford additional assurance of the extension of this grand system of roads.

Mr. McKenzie is also vigorously pushing his W. & O. line toward the Ohio river. These lines will greatly aid the progress of Alexandria, and afford increased facilities of transit to rich sections of Virginia.

The Chesapeake and Ohio railroad has already demonstrated for Richmond and that region, what these will for Alexandria and the northern portion .- Cor. Rich. State Journal.

THE STREET RAILROAD. - More complaints were made to the Mayor to-day of the extent of King street, obstructed by the contractor for laying the track of the street railroad, but an examination of the work and the statements of the contractor and the President of the railroad company make it evident that no more of the street is obstructed than is necessary and that the work is progressing as speedily as possible. Mr. Wm. Haggins the energetic contractor for the repaying of the street is now rapidly pushing his part of the work ahead. He has now improved. The Superintendent of the Police served no tices this afternoon upon the President of the company and the contractor to stop work at once, but the notices were not observed.

AMPROVEMENT.—The bids for the erection of a three storied brick building-two store rooms and a dwelling house above-on the site of the old Marshall House were opened by Mr. Genizberger, the owner of that property, last night and the contract for the carpenter's work award to B. F. Price, and that for the brick Work to Padgett & Bro. The bids were as follows:-B. F. Price, without brick work, $4,600; with brick work, $5,400; Thomas E. Kemp, without brick work $4,700, with brick work, $5,365; William F. Vincent, without barick work $4,738, with brick work $5,400; Padgett & Bro., for brick work $665. The contractors, it is understood, will proceed with their work immediately.

POLICE HEADQUARTERS.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday: Eugine Dulany, colored, for disorderly conduct and fighting in the streets, was fined and discharged; James Archibald, for disorderly conduct was fined and discharged; a warrant was issued for the arrest of Nancy Lucas, colored, for disorderly conduct; Henry Lawrence, for assaulting Capt. Frank Keys, was discharged; W. T. Burnes and Buck Cox were arrested for fighting at the St. Asaph street depot, but their examination was postponed.

Colored Excursion. - The Benevolent Union Association of Washington, containing sixteen colored organizations, accompanied with a brass band and friends to the number of about four hundred arrived here yesterday evening and at half-past eleven last night left on an excursion trip to Richmond via the W. C., V. M. & G. S. R. R. and the C. & O. R. R. The delay in starting was occasioned by an insufficiency of funds.
